Z&CO
design group

June 2024 Newsletter

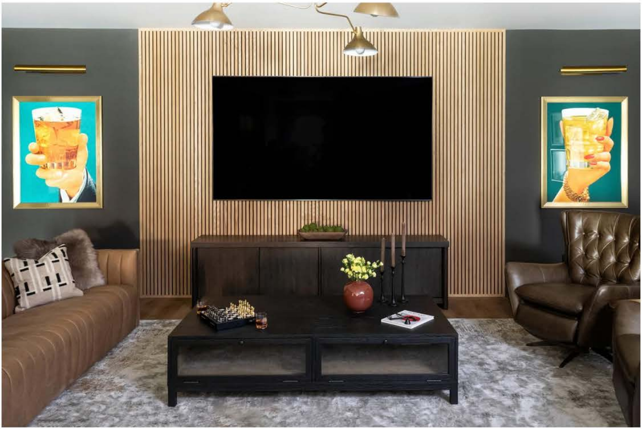
Hello, Friend!



How did we transform a bare basement into a luxurious adult hangout?

This month, we're excited to unveil the Brookhaven Modern Basement, a project that epitomizes comfort and sophistication. Plus, explore the resurgence of nesting tables, and get insider tips for perfecting your home's visual harmony. Don’t miss our Q&A spotlight on unique custom furniture designs. Happy reading!

Featured Project

Brookhaven Modern Basement | Brookhaven, GA

Phase II of the Brookhaven Modern involved a complete basement finish and design. We started at the studs and created a beautiful and unique adult luxury basement for this family...

View this project

Blog Alert

Do you know your luxury interior design aesthetic?

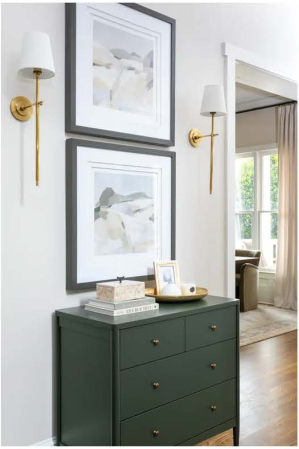
Discover your style in our luxury modern design blog, plus design ideas for your living room, bathroom, and more!

Read our blog

What's Trending?

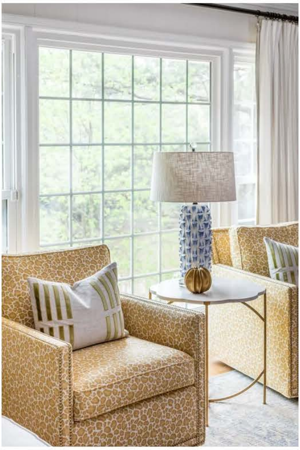
Nesting tables first gained popularity during the Victorian era in the mid-19th century and have since been celebrated for their practicality, style, and ability to complement various interior design styles. These multi-functional tables can be stacked together or used separately, making them ideal for small spaces. They offer a stylish and space-saving solution for living rooms, serving as coffee tables, side tables, or extra surfaces for guests.

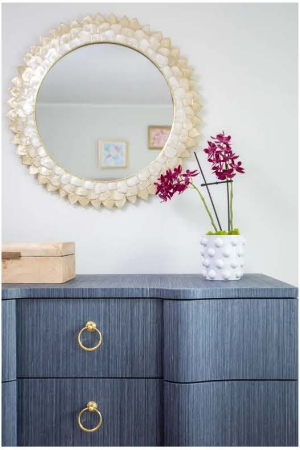
Insider Tips



Your pictures should not be wider than your sideboard to maintain visual balance and harmony. When artwork extends beyond the edges of the furniture, it can appear disproportionate and overwhelm the space. Aim to place the center of the artwork at eye level, typically 57-60 inches from the floor, and maintain equal spacing between frames. For a more layered effect, consider resting and stacking your artwork directly on the sideboard itself.

Q&A





Q: What's the most unique piece of furniture you've ever used in a design?

A: Custom furniture design is one of the many services we provide to deliver a tailored result for our clients, so there are so many that come to mind! In terms of uniqueness, Project Chastain was a very fun, feminine project with some truly standout pieces.

Of course, we have to mention the cheetah-print swivel chairs in the family room, but the bedroom chest of drawers wrapped in blue linen is definitely not something you see every day. There are a ton of fantastically textured, patterned, and colorful pieces throughout this home, so be sure to check it out if you’re looking for inspiration!

Submit a question for your chance to have it answered here, in our newsletter!

Submit question
