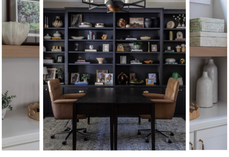
WHAT'S TRENDING

Accent Ceilings

Accent ceilings are taking center stage in design this year. No longer just an afterthought, ceilings are being painted in bold colors, covered in wallpaper, or finished with custom millwork. This trend draws the eye upward, adding drama and personality to any room.

INSIDER TIPS

Curated & Clutter-Free Shelving



Dedicate approximately 60% of your shelf space to books, 20% to decorative objects, and leave 20% as empty or "negative" space. This creates visual breathing room and prevents shelves from feeling cluttered. Within the 60% of book space, vary the orientation—stack some books vertically and others horizontally—to add visual interest.

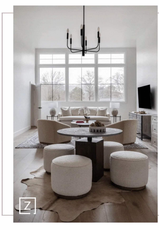
Reader Q&A Spotlight



How can I use a hide rug in my home without it feeling too rustic or western?

Pair it with modern or minimalist furniture and keep the surrounding decor simple. Opt for hides in neutral tones like black, gray, or white, or choose a patchwork or metallic-finish hide for a more contemporary look.

Layering a hide rug over a larger, flat-weave area rug—such as jute or sisal—adds texture and sophistication, which grounds the hide and makes it feel intentional. By focusing on clean lines, modern materials, and balanced styling, a hide rug can feel chic and current in any setting.
